Once upon a time there was a green house.
At the front of the house there was a green green tree.
At the top of the tree there was a green green hut.
Up the hut there was a green green star.
On the star there was a green green table.
On the table there was a green green turkey.